

Harvard Black Law Students Association presents...

Social Justice Week

Because we care about more than just OUR education, OUR housing, and OUR rights.

March 2nd – 6th

A week dedicated to learning about the most pressing social justice issues facing communities of color in Boston.

Featuring:

Monday: Social Justice Week Kick-Off

BLSA general body meeting featuring a special presentation by Noah Hood and the BLSA Social Justice Committee
Langdell South
7:00 pm
Dinner will be served

Tuesday: Education

Education Awareness Candy Campaign

Learn about some of the problems facing Boston's youth, including the unfair and exclusionary expulsion policies
Harkness Common
12:00 noon

Wednesday: Housing

Housing Recovery Acts in MA

Some of the areas foremost housing activists will gather to discuss legislation concerning predatory lending practices
Hauser 101
7:30 pm
Refreshments will be served

Thursday: Criminal Justice

Sealing Criminal Records: Implications for Social Justice

A panel of the leading voices in criminal justice reform will speak about criminal record information laws.
Austin Hall
7:00 pm
A Soul Food Dinner will be served.

Friday: Criminal Justice

CORI Sealing Training

Criminal Record Sealing Training involves hands-on training. Participants will be able to help with upcoming CORI Sealing projects.