

No Singing!
It is forbidden!

But I sing because I am so happy that I want to praise God with my singing! God created birds to sing!

No Singing!
It is forbidden!

No Dancing!
It is forbidden!

But I dance because I am so happy that I want to praise God with my dancing! He created lambs to dance!

No Dancing!
It is forbidden!

Stop that whirling!
It is forbidden!

Stop that whirling! What is the use of reason? They can't hear me anyhow - they are in their own world.

My Child-Stop that singing, dancing, and whirling!
It is forbidden!

But Father- I do not understand? I sing, dance, and whirl because I am so filled with joy and love for God. Why would God forbid his praise?

Hmmm - maybe this is what is meant by 'Parity of Intent'? Only God knows the answer!
